

About Me

Last Updated Saturday, 10 October 2009

This picture was taken circa 1992, 1993. A couple of my friends and I went backpacking in the Southern Sierra Mtn. near the Lake Edison area. I remember losing my first Citizen's WindSurfer watch . It fell out of my shirt pocket as I washing my face in the cold water. Then it went down the gorging river. It probably ended up in someone's sink or out in the San Francisco bay.
